How we need your documents certifying

We're happy to accept certified copies if you'd prefer not to send your original documents through the post.

Copies of your original documents should have been certified within the last 12 months using the following words - 'I confirm that I have seen the original document'. The certifier must sign their name and include the following details - full name, profession, professional body, business address (where applicable), phone number and date.

The person certifying should be in current employment, but we will also accept certification from a person who has retired (unless the list below specifically indicates that the person should still be serving), provided they still hold the qualification and are a member of the relevant institute. The person certifying must not be related to you in any way (e.g. spouse, partner, sibling, parent, child or in-law), and they must not be named as a joint account holder/borrower on your mortgage. You cannot certify your own identification.

Copies of original documents can only be certified by one of the following:

Legal professional (solicitor registered in England and Wales, Northern Ireland or Scotland, barrister registered in England and Wales, Northern Ireland or Scotland or Notary Public registered in any country)

Qualified accountant (registered with either ICAEW, ICAS, CAI, ACCA, AAT, CIPFA or CIMA)

Public sector official (serving officer of the Armed Services, serving police officer, teacher in current employment)

Medical professional (doctor registered with the General Medical Council, dentist registered with the relevant national professional body, qualified nurse registered to NMC)

Post Office official (must include Post Office stamp or Post Office certificate)

Embassy official (an embassy, consulate or high commission officer in the country of issue of the relevant document)

Other (local government councillor, Member of Parliament, bank manager, building society manager or minister of religion).
